GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

DENOTES NEW RULE CHANGES

PURPOSE

The Junior Livestock Show of Erath County is conducted for the purpose of developing sportsmanship in youth and an interest in producing livestock.

GENERAL RULES

1. The Junior Livestock Show of Erath County (JLSEC) is part of the Erath County Livestock Association. The Erath County Livestock Association, Junior Livestock Show of Erath County (JLSEC) or any committees operating as a part of the Junior Livestock Show organization will not be held liable for the loss or damage of equipment, injury to animals or personal injury to livestock exhibitors or spectators at any meeting or activities prior to the show, during the show, or after the show.
2. The Erath County Livestock Association reserves to the Junior Livestock Show Management Committee the final and absolute right to interpret all rules and regulations and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto or otherwise arriving out of, or connected with, incidents to the show; and exhibitors, parent or show official who violate any of the rules will be subject to such penalties as the executive committee may order including possible forfeiture of all privileges and premiums or permanent barring from participation in the show.

Any formal protest must be made in writing, citing the rule in question. This protest must be accompanied by a deposit of $250.00 (cash), which will be refunded only if the protest is upheld. Any additional cost, above protest fee, will be the responsibility of the individual filing protest. Protests must be filed with show officials prior to the day of the judging if the cause for the protest is known by then. Otherwise, protests must be filed as soon as the cause is known. Judging will not be interrupted for protest investigation and, depending on the basis of the protest, a decision may be withheld until the investigation is completed. No protest will be accepted as to the decision of a classifier or judge.

The Junior Livestock Show of Erath County reserves the right to random test any animal for use of non-approved substances.

3. Code of Ethics:

The Junior Livestock Show of Erath County is a family friendly event. As such, an individual's conduct as an exhibitor or a patron should be exemplary, and violators are subject to disqualification or removal from the show grounds.

Violations include, but are not limited to:

- Disruptive or improper conduct
- Public display of profanity of any sort
- Violence of any sort
- Threatening behavior or the appearance of threatening behavior (threatening behavior as determined by the Executive Board)
- Direct criticism or interference with the judge or livestock show management, other exhibitors, classifiers, or show officials before, during, or after the competitive event is prohibited. In the furtherance of their official duty, all judges and livestock show management, or other show officials shall be treated with courtesy, cooperation, and respect and no person shall direct abusive or threatening conduct toward them
- No exhibitor or parent shall conspire with another person or persons to intentionally violate this Code of Ethics or knowingly contribute or cooperate with another person or persons either by affirmative action or inaction to violate this Code of Ethics. Violation of this rule shall subject such individual to disciplinary action
- Excessive consumption of alcohol

4. All exhibitors must attend elementary or secondary schools in Erath County OR must live in Erath County, or be home schooled and reside in Erath County. Exhibitors must be at least nine years of age on or before September 1, 2019, or have entered third grade. They must be actively enrolled 4-H or FFA members. Exhibitors must own and have continuously and personally fed, managed and cared for their animals under the supervision of the Erath County Extension Agent or an Erath County Ag Science teacher. Animals must be housed in Erath County or at the exhibitor's residence. Qualifications of exhibitors and animals for entering the Erath County Junior Livestock Show must be subject to approval by the supervising Ag Science teacher or Erath County Extension Agent.

5. All exhibition animals will be subject to rules and regulations of the Texas Animal Health Commission, as they exist at the time of Show. DAIRY – SEE RULE #4 UNDER DAIRY.

6. The Management Team of the Junior Livestock Show of Erath County shall reserve the right to bar from the show any animal which is sick, blemished, or has any health problem which, in the opinion of that committee, would disqualify the animal from participation in a quality livestock show.
7. THE SHOWING OF UNETHICALLY FITTED LIVESTOCK IS PROHIBITED. Unethical fitting shall be deemed to mean any physical or physiological attempt to alter the natural conformation, musculature, or weight of an animal. See species rules for specific fitting provisions.
8. Animals will be presented at the premium sale in the same condition they were shown; clean, dry, no oil, paint, glitter, etc.
9. All species will be housed in the barns provided. All Sale animals to be shown must stay on the grounds after weigh-in and until animal are sold at auction or does not make auction. Bedding will be restricted to shavings (NO PELLETED SHAVINGS) to be provided by exhibitors.
10. Animal weights will be determined at show initial weigh-in supervised by a weigh-master selected by show officials. If an animal weighs below the prescribed minimum or above the maximum weight for a species, the animal will be able to be reweighed at the end of the species weigh-in under direction of the superintendent. All Swine, Sheep, Steers to weigh in by Breed in show order. There will not be any weight tolerance in market animals at weigh-in.
11. Weight divisions within each market division breed group will be determined by show officials; animals weighing the same will be placed in the same class. Numbers in classes will be as equal as mathematically possible; to avoid any fractional numbers within a class, extra animal(s) will be assigned in the order of lightest class to heaviest class. The number of classes within each breed division within species will be determined by the Show Management.
12. Each exhibitor must show his/her own animal that was designated at the time of check in. Only the exhibitor can show the designated animal in the auction ring. (No adults/siblings or other exhibitors allowed with showman). An exception to this rule has to be approved by the Superintendent.
An exception will be made if an exhibitor has more than one animal in a single class or if an exhibitor is unable to show because of illness, or unable to show because of emergency. School functions or other extremely important functions may be considered as qualifying emergencies on a case-by-case basis by the Executive Committee. In any case, if an exhibitor will be unable to show his/her animal or to accompany his/her animal in the auction ring, the exhibitor must deliver a letter to the respective superintendent prior to the show or sale stating reason.

13. The Superintendent has the authority to dismiss any animal out of the show or show ring that is unruly, dangerous, cannot be handled or creates an unsafe atmosphere to the exhibitor or other exhibitors.
14. Any exhibitor, who is officially ineligible, according to school policy, will not be allowed to participate in the show or sale or be allowed to have an animal in the show or sale.
15. No dogs, including puppies, will be allowed on show grounds. Exception: Service dogs
16. No alterations to facilities will be permitted without approval of grounds committee, i.e. moving pens, altering electrical or other utilities, or defacing property in any way. Any individual violating this rule will be subject to payment of repair costs. Equipment deemed unsafe by the Executive Committee will be barred. Fans must be attached to overhead cages and blowing parallel to tie rail.
17. All animals entered in selling divisions must have a county show or major show validation tag in their ear at weigh-in and throughout the show. Dairy may have an "Official Breed or USDA 840 tag". If tag is lost, animal will be verified as validated by tattoo or ear notch. Exhibitor must notify teacher or agent if tag is lost. The retag committee will retag animals prior to weigh in. Any animal without a tag at time of weigh in will not be eligible to show.
18. The calendar of events included in the front section of this rulebook will be followed for opening and closing times of the facilities for each day.

ENTRIES

19. Fees to defray cleanup, judging and miscellaneous show expenses are as follows:

Erath County Junior Livestock Show Validation Fee* - $15.00 per animal

Entry fee - $20.00 per animal In the Selling Divisions
$10 for breeding rabbits, beef heifers and horses

Major Show tags will be additional **

20. All entries and entry fees must be submitted by the Ag Teacher or Extension agent to the Junior Livestock Show of Erath County by 3:00 PM, December 2, 2019. Entries must be submitted to teacher or agent signing entry card. Entries must be submitted on an official entry form by exhibitors or exhibitor's parents or guardian. Entry forms that are not fully completed and signed is grounds for be disallowed from the Show. Late entries will not be accepted. Substitution of valid entries may be made up to show check-in or weighing.

21. There will be NO LIMIT on the number of animals an exhibitor may validate or enter. Major show validation will be accepted for the county show provided county validation fee is paid and county validation form is completed by county validation date. Animals placed on feed by siblings or members of the same household will be recorded as a family unit. Designation of ownership does not have to be made to individual members until show weigh-in. The Foster Home will be considered a family unit.
22. Each exhibitor may show a maximum of FOUR animals in the selling division. Each exhibitor may only show the number of animals entered in the individual's name. An exhibitor may enter and show any number of animals in the Breeding Division. Exhibitor may show (3) three of same species. If a (4th) market animal is shown it must be a different eligible species. Pen groups are considered as one entry.

Auction

23. Each exhibitor who qualifies for the auction sales may sell only one (1) steer, OR one (1) market swine, OR one (1) market lamb, OR one (1) dairy heifer OR (1) goat OR 1 pen of broilers OR (1) pen of rabbits. The Grand and Reserve Grand Champion of each division are required to sell except when one exhibitor exhibits both the Grand and Reserve. In that case, the Grand Champion will sell. If an exhibitor has two Champions, the exhibitor can sell only one animal. All other exhibitors who qualify for the auction sell one (1) qualifying animal.
24. Exhibitors who qualify multiple species have the choice of specie they wish to sell. Exhibitors must sell the highest placing animal in the specie selected except for dairy. Exhibitors must notify the sale committee located in the Show Office within 30 minutes of the conclusion of the last species shown by the exhibitor. Exhibitors who fail to comply MUST sell their highest placing animal as determined by the auction sale committee. (NO CHANGES WILL BE MADE IN THE SALE ORDER AFTER IT IS COMPLETE.)
25. A five percent (5%) sale commission will be charged to all auction proceeds including add-ons. (These funds will be designated for show facilities, improvements and maintenance.)

26. The following maximum number of exhibitors accepted for the Market Animal and Dairy Auction will apply:

Dairy - 45	Goats - 30
Steers - 30	Poultry - 4
Lambs - 40	Rabbit - 8
Swine - 65

For market species, sale numbers allotted in a breed division (or weight division for goats) will be allotted in proportion to the division's percentage of the species. Within a breed/weight division, each class will be allotted sale numbers as equal as possible based on placing; there maybe additional sale slots inserted if this process qualifies fewer than the maximum number shown above. If animals of the same relative placing qualify for auction the order of preference will be class furnishing Champion > class furnishing Reserve Champion > lighter class > heavier class.

*ANY SELLING DIVISION WITH FEWER THAN 6 EXHIBITORS MAY BE SUBJECT TO ELIMINATION IN FUTURE SHOWS.

27. The following sale order will be observed for all market species:

Grand Champion & Reserve Grand Champion of all species will sell at start of auction. All breed Champions and Reserves are eligible to sell. All others are in order of placing within classification - dairy, sheep, steer, swine, and goats. Steers and Dairy will rotate in sale order. (Dairy even years and Steers odd years) In the dairy division, Jersey sell first in odd years and Holstein in even years. Dairy sells oldest to youngest after the Champions are sold. Sheep & goats will rotate in sale order (Sheep even years and goat's odd years).

28. Floor prices for the Dairy Heifer Auction Sale will be sold to the highest bidder at floor price auctions. The dairy floor price auction will be set at a time designated by the superintendent.

29. ONLY Grand and Reserve Champions will be allowed to have one assistant in the auction ring  for purpose of holding a banner. All other auction exhibitors may not have an assistant.

Premiums and Awards

30. In all divisions' awards as designated by the Stock Show Management Committee will be presented.
31. The following premiums will be paid for (Beef Heifers, Horse and Breeding Rabbit).
1st Place - $20.00, 2nd Place - $15.00, 3rd Place - $12.00, 4th Place - $9.00, 5th Place - $6.00
An additional $15.00 will be paid for Division Champion, $10.00 for Division Reserve Champion, $100.00 for Grand Champion, and $75.00 for Reserve Grand Champion in the Breeding Beef and Breeding Rabbit divisions. For horse division, $50.00 will be paid for Champion of each sex division, and $37.50 will be paid for Reserve Champion.

SHOWMANSHIP

32. Showmanship order for each specie will be set by Superintendent.

 Each exhibitor must show the animal they showed in their respective class. Substitute showmen are not eligible to show in showmanship.

The following showmanship winners will be selected:

Horse and Rabbit

JUNIOR: Age 13 and under (as of 9/1/2019) SENIOR: Age 14 & Over (as of 9/1/2019)

Poultry

One Poultry Showmanship class consisting of all ages.

Sheep, Beef, Market Goats, Swine, and Dairy

JUNIOR Age 10 and under (as of 9/1/2018)
INTERMEDIATE Age 11-13 (as of 9/1/2018)
SENIOR Age 14 & Over (as of 9/1/2018)

DAIRY

1. ENTRY DEADLINE, OWNERSHIP DEADLINE, VALIDATION, SHOW ARRIVAL, SHOW CHECK IN AND JUDGING- See Calendar of Events.

2. HEALTH REQUIREMENTS - Health certificates are required from a licensed veterinarian within 30 days of show date. Texas Animal Health Rules at the time of the Show take precedence over these rules.

3. AGE VERIFICATION – A licensed veterinarian will age verify all dairy heifers at Validation Health certificates on all heifers will include, reproductive status of heifers 10 months and older, and soundness of udder expressing normal fluid from each teat (for all heifers 15 months or older). The pregnancy status of heifers of age.

After the sale, if the buyer (floor or individual) determines that an animal does not have normal fluid from one or more teats OR is not pregnant, if represented to be, that buyer has 96 hours from sale date to notify show management. If this notice is upheld by a veterinarian agreed by both buyer and exhibitor, the exhibitor will retain ownership of the animal and no funds will be exchanged.

4. ELIGIBILITY - The Dairy Division will be limited to entries that have never calved. Dairy heifers entered in classes 7- 8 must be verified pregnant and so stated on health certificate by certified veterinarian.

All extra teats must be removed by tag-in or immediately thereafter.

Age classification can be validated by presenting D.H.I.A. Calf Sheets (Form DHI-204 or DC-305), V.I.P. certificates, or breed association grade ID certificates. All animals will be subject to age verification by a licensed veterinarian and Show Superintendent or his designate at tag-in.

Pedigree and breeding information will be announced at the Dairy Auction Sale if it is provided to the floor buyer before sale time.

Top line hair may not exceed two inches. No crossbred dairy heifers will be allowed in show or sale.

Each exhibitor shall be responsible for being with their animal at announced time when floor buyers are setting prices prior to sale.

5. DAIRY AUCTION SALE - The maximum number to be eligible to sell will be determined as follows:

The total number of exhibitors will be multiplied by 90%. If this figure is greater than those listed above, the above maximum will apply. If the 90% factor is smaller than above, then the top 90% of the exhibitors will be the maximum number to sell. However, if exhibitors in the top 90% withdraw from the sale, NO EXHIBITOR IN THE BOTTOM 10% WILL BE MOVED UP TO SELL. "All Breed Champions and Reserve Champions are automatically eligible for the auction. As the judges select the bottom 10% of exhibitors, any animal excluded is not eligible for the auction." All qualifying animals will be selected before the 90% rule goes into effect. In no case will the bottom 10% sell.

Each exhibitor will be handed a "sift card" so that they know they made the sift.

Once heifers are lined up for the sale, there will be NO SUBSTITUTIONS!

6. CLASSES AND ORDER OF JUDGING

There must be a minimum of (6) six animals of any Dairy Breed on show day will constitute separate class for that Breed. The Holsteins and the Jerseys will be rotated annually with respect to show order and sale order; Holsteins even numbered years, Jersey odd numbered years.
